"HARRIET AND THE PIPER"

One of Kathleen Norris' best stories, "Harriet and the Piper," will start in next Monday's Star. Be sure to read the opening chapters, as it is one of the best stories of the year, and has received the most favorable comments of critics of this class of literature.

Mrs. W. T. Gary has as her guests Miss Elizabeth Skinner, of Dunedin, president of section four of the State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. B. C. Riley, of Gainesville, vice president of section four; Mrs. McCollum, of Gainesville; Mrs. T. H. Robinson, of Terra Ceia. These ladies arrived in Ocala yesterday, to attend the sectional meeting of the Woman's Club which is being held today. A number of the visitors went to the Girls Industrial School yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Robinson is state chairman of social and industrial conditions and Mrs. L. W. Duval chairman of the same local committee and a number of other club members who are interested in the same work accompanied them.

Hand tailored gabardine coat and pants, $22.50 and $25. H. A. Waterman, The Haberdasher. 2t

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Layton and Mrs. Barnett, who have had charge of the Colonial Hotel for the last four years, moved today to the old hospital building, corner Orange and West Adams, which they have transformed into a neat and modern hostelry, and will call the Layton Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Layton and Mrs. Barnett have won a high reputation for keeping a pleasant and home-like house, and it is safe to say their rooms and tables will have capacity patronage.

Mrs. J. M. Gross of Lakeland, who has been attending the state convention of the Methodist Missionary Society in Jacksonville, stopped in Ocala en route home with Mrs. Clyatt. Mrs. Gross left today, accompanied by her little granddaughter, Bettie Harris, who has been in Ocala with her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harris.

Miss Carroll Perrinot, who has been visiting in Tampa, arrived in Ocala yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. Clarence Camp until Sunday. Miss Perrinot has visited in Ocala several times as the guest of Mrs. Camp and Miss Mary Burford and it is always a pleasure to her friends here to have her with them.

Mrs. Philip Murphy has been elected state treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, at the convention at West Palm Beach. The desire on the part of this organization to again name Mrs. Murphy as its treasurer speaks well for her ability and popularity, and Ocala should be proud of capturing two of the state offices of this influential organization.

Mrs. T. D. Briggs of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. R. T. Adams, left yesterday morning with Mrs. Adams to take the Oklawaha river trip to Palatka, where they expect to meet Mr. Adams and Miss Dorothy Adams, and motor to Jacksonville for a short stay. Mrs. Briggs will then leave for her home in New York.

MRS. HOOD ENTERTAINED VISITING CLUB WOMEN

Mrs. Walter Hood, president of the Ocala Woman's Club, was hostess Friday evening at a buffet supper which she gave as a compliment to several visiting club women. The guests were invited for seven o'clock. Supper was served at three small tables that were placed in the music and dining rooms. All of the decorations and favors were in green and white and St. Patrick's day emblems. The flowers used in decorating the rooms were white sweet peas and white hyacinths, which combined with maiden hair fern made a lovely combination. The tables were covered with handsome tea cloths and in the center of each was a vase of white sweet peas and maiden hair fern, with small bouquets of the same as favors at the place of each guest. The place cards were green shamrocks tied with white ribbons. A five course supper was served. Mrs. Hood was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Grider Perkins. The affair was unusually pleasant. Mrs. Hood's guests were Mrs. B. C. Bailey and Mrs. McCollum, of Gainesville; Miss Elizabeth Skinner, of Dunedin; Mrs. Robinson, of Terra Ceia, and Mrs. William Hocker, Mrs. C. R. Tydings, Mrs. R. A. Burford and Mrs. W. T. Gary, past presidents of the Ocala club; Mrs. L. W. Duval, first vice president and Mrs. Lester Warner, second vice president of the Ocala club.

"An enraptured audience heard the Swain recital. The matchless artistry of this noted baritone singer delighted his audience," is the way the Wheeling Register speaks of Mr. Edwin Swain's concert which will be given at the Woman's Club next Monday evening. 1t
